

Kids Rising Up through Support and Healing Training Opportunity

K.R.U.S.H.

This program can be implemented
by any school staff

The K.R.U.S.H. group is designed to support students with incarcerated parents and/or family members. The goal of the group is to build knowledge, provide emotional support and tools, and begin goal setting with group members. This training includes: Group Lesson Guide (aligned with state/national standards), materials used, information in approach, and online support.
